New York, April 8.—The perfect babies are engaged and it's only a question of time when that thing they sing about at weddings, "Oh, perfect love," will ripen into that thing they write about in books—the perfect marriage.

William Flynn, 37 months old, and

Alene Houck, 17 months old, the 100 per cent winners of a baby contest just held in Los Angeles, Cal., have arranged through their respective mothers to be married as soon as they are old enough.

And thereat all the people who believe in eugenics rejoice exceedingly! Meantime, however, Dr. Woods
